

Coast Regts. In 9/43 was in Tuscany (by Pisa), where disarmed by the Germans

-[# 217 not used]

-[218th Coastal Div was to be formed from 18 Coastal Bde, but this didn't happen]

-[# 219 not used]

-220th Coastal Division - Formed in July 1942. OB = 111 & 152 Coast Regts, 325 Coast Bn. Div served in Latium; in 9/43 was under the Rome garrison, and disarmed by the Germans

-221st Coastal Division - Formed in July 1942 (new). OB = 4 & 8 Coast Regts. Initially in south Italy, but by 9/43 was in Latium, where disarmed by the Germans

-222nd Coastal Division - Formed in July 1942 (new). OB = 74, 89, 151 and 163 Coast Regts. Was in the south, in 7/43 by Salerno; in 9/43 was still in Campania, where disarmed by the Germans

-223rd Coastal Division - Formed in May 1943 (new). OB = 82 & 512 Coast Bns; parts of 5th Alpini Regt, and remnants of other Alpine units, were attached by fall. Was in south France, where disarmed by the Germans in 9/43

-224th Coastal Division - Formed in France in Jan 1943 (new). OB = 62 & 81 Coast Bns; attached were 1st & 3rd "Alpini Groups." Was in south France, where disarmed by the Germans in 9/43

-225th Coastal Division - Formed in early 1943 (new). OB = 172 & 173 Coast Regts. Was on Corsica, where it joined the Allies in 9/43; retained by them for local service

-226th Coastal Division - Formed in April 1943 (new). OB = 170, 171, 181 Coast Regts. Was on Corsica, where it went over to the Allies in 9/43; retained by them for local service; dissolved in 1944

-227th Coastal Division - Formed in July 1943, ex 11 (new) Coastal Bde. OB = 145, 148 Coast Regts. Was in south Italy; in 9/43 in Calabria where it went over to the Allies; retained by them for local service; dissolved in 1945

-228th Coastal Division - Apparently was just forming in Sept 1943 in south Italy when the Allies landed; OB unknown. Went over to the Allies, and was used by them as a pioneer (laborer) unit until 1944

-[# 229 not used]